

International Design

MARCH/APRIL 1991 $6.00

SPECIAL GRAPHICS ISSUE

PACKAGING POP STARS

CHINA'S LOST ART

POLITICAL PROPAGANDA

MARKETING MICKEY MOUSE

THE SINFUL NATURE OF MAN

The seven deadly sins seem to be inseparable and intrinsically linked; they function like integral parts of the human body. In fact, man could be considered the ideal walking embodiment of sin. Shing Tse, a Chinese philosopher, theorized in 475 B.C. that man is born with an inherently evil nature. Shing Tse, were he alive today, might represent modern man and his many sins thusly.

Earl Gee is principal of Earl Gee Design and Fani Chung is principal of Fani Chung Design, both located in San Francisco; Geoffrey Nelson is a photographer in Mountain View, California.

